Update

“Student Tuition Recovery Fund—California” should be replaced with the following:

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student, who is a California resident and prepays all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and

2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident.
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by California residents who were students attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education. You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.

3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other cost.
4. There was a decline in the quality of the course instruction within 30 days before the school closed or, if the decline began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period of decline determined by the Bureau.

EDUCATION (E)

E7001 Comprehensive Planning

3 credit hours

This course focuses on concepts and strategies associated with comprehensive planning for educational organizations. An emphasis will be placed on the development, communication and implementation skills needed for district planning.

E7002 Change Theory: The District

3 credit hours

This course focuses on theories and strategies for leading change in the educational setting. Emphasis is placed on systemic change at the district or organizational level.

E7004 Improving School Leadership Through Data Driven Inquiry

3 credit hours

The purpose of this course is to prepare educational leaders to utilize quantitative and qualitative educational research to carry out strategic data-driven inquiry for school improvement. Improving student learning and achievement can be accomplished most effectively through the use of data analysis to understand student learning needs and to make instructional decisions. Through this course, teachers and administrators will learn the importance of using data to plan appropriate instructional experiences for their students and to identify and analyze measures of data to understand student learning needs.

E7005 Advanced Education Law

3 credit hours

In this advanced law course, students examine the legal foundations and operations of public education at the central office/district level. Laws, policies, and procedures impacting district employees, students, curriculum/instruction, and contractual agreements are studied. Course components include case studies, field experiences, and a course project.

Prerequisite(s): E6036 or E7013

E7006 Human and Fiscal Resources Management in Public Schools

3 credit hours

This course presents theories and strategies that guide the effective management of human and fiscal resources in public school districts. Building on the concepts learned in courses in educational finance and human resources management, students will analyze the close relationship between human and fiscal resources and the success of the school district. Students will make extensive use of local, regional and state data to analyze the effectiveness of resource allocation and disbursement.

E7007 Ethics and Interpersonal Effectiveness for Educational Leaders

3 credit hours

This course is designed to have potential leaders examine their own personal ethical profiles and communication styles in light of the ethical struggles they are certain to experience in their lives as school administrators. They will be required to reflect on their communication behaviors in light of their roles as educational leaders and relate those behaviors to ethical theory.

E7009 Educational Leadership in Administration

3 credit hours

This is an advanced course in educational leadership designed for individuals who desire to pursue a principal position in the future. It features an analysis and synthesis of the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of ethical leaders who promote the success of all students by: creating cultures of educational excellence; responding to diverse learner needs; facilitating the development of safe, efficient, and effective learning environments; and influencing the political, social, economic, legal, and cultural contexts that shape schools and schooling.

This advanced course analyzes influence of supervision and evaluation of instruction on teacher efficacy and professional growth. Knowledge, skills, and behaviors necessary for effective supervision are applied to the tasks and functions of supervising and evaluating teachers at different stages of experience and expertise. The course considers the needs of teacher as adult learner and encourages the development of collegial development groups as part of a comprehensive program for professional and curriculum development. Students will practice supervisory and evaluative strategies.

E7012 Data Driven Change for School Improvement*3 credit hours*

The course will provide an introduction to data driven decision making that will offer a link between research and practice. Students will learn about both quantitative and qualitative educational research to make decisions about school improvement through professional development. Students will also develop and present a school improvement plan specifically for a real-life school district.

E7013 Survey of School Law*3 credit hours*

This course examines the legal foundations of public education at the individual school level. It addresses legal principles and issues pertinent to student- and building-level employee legal rights and responsibilities. The legal process, structure of the law, legislation/litigation, and current legal issues are studied.

E7014 Educational Finance and Business Management*3 credit hours*

This course is designed as a comprehensive overview of public school finance and business management. Students examine the macro economic, political and management issues facing public school principals. Lessons address resource allocation and resource distribution in light of the principles of liberty, adequacy, and equity.

E7015 Human Resources in Education*3 credit hours*

This course presents concepts and strategies that guide the effective management of human resources at the school level. Emphasis is placed on the recruitment, employment, orientation and evaluation of personnel as well as an examination of the ethical issues related to human resources.

E8380 School District Practicum/Internship I*1.5 credit hours*

College of Business Curriculum Updates

Effective May 2010, students entering graduate programs offered by the College of Business will follow the program curriculum listed below.

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION Argosy University, Phoenix

Program Overview

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program is designed to develop action-oriented problem-solving managers for the public sector, especially at the state and local levels of government. Students have the opportunity to develop the competencies required to execute the duties and responsibilities of public sector managers, including evaluation and supervision of employees, reinforcement of the organizational mission, and effective management of organizational resources.

Program Outcomes

The MPA program is intended to produce graduates as leaders in the public sector and the following program outcomes reflect this goal.

1. Communication

- a. Communicate the roles and limitations of government at any level (federal, state, local) in specific circumstances.
- b. Deliver oral, visual, or written presentations to educate or promote projects to diverse audiences.

2. Analytical problem solving

Gather information, discern gaps, develop, and evaluate possible solutions and alternatives regarding political, social, and financial costs and benefits of public sector initiatives.

3. Leadership and motivation

- a. Generate shared goals and lead internal and external stakeholders toward those goals.
- b. Motivate employees and other stakeholders to perform consistent with the mission of the relevant work unit.

4. Tactical Management

Execute duties and responsibilities such as: evaluate and supervise public sector employees, reinforce organizational mission, and manage unit budgets.

5. Interpersonal Effectiveness

- a. Establish, build, and sustain effective working relationships with relevant parties to achieve organizational goals.
- b. Exemplify and teach ethical values and behavior.

Admissions Requirements

- A bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution, a nationally accredited institution approved and documented by the faculty and dean of the College of Business, or an appropriately certified foreign institution
- A 2.7 grade point average for the bachelor's degree used as the basis of admission, or a grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) for the last 60 hours of coursework (including graduate work)
- A minimum score of 550 on the written TOEFL® or 79 on the TOEFL® Internet (iBT)

is also required for all applicants whose native language is not English or who have not graduated from an institution at which English is the language of instruction

An admissions representative is available to help interested applicants complete the following required documentation:

- Completed Application for Admission Form
- Application fee (Non-refundable, except in California and Arizona. In the state of Arizona, the application fee is refundable if the application is canceled within three business days of the applicant signing the Enrollment Agreement.)
- If the basis of admission is an earned bachelor's degree with a 2.7 grade point average, an official transcript from the degree granting institution
- If the basis of admission is a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) for the last 60 hours of coursework, official transcripts from all post-secondary schools attended during the 60 hours of study

Exceptions to the Minimum Grade Point Average

Applicants with grade point averages lower than the stated program minimums may be considered for admission on an exception basis with significant evidence of academic and professional potential. This potential may be demonstrated by the career and/or personal accomplishments indicated in the statement of academic and professional goals, the career summary, and academic or professional letters of recommendation. Exceptions must be approved by the program chair or assistant dean. Exceptions must be justified, documented, signed, placed, and retained in the student's academic file. Students admitted on an exception basis will be assigned provisional status. See "Exceptions to Admission Requirements" in section 5 of this catalog under "Admission Policies."

Students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement will also be required to submit the following:

- Personal/professional goal statement with a self-appraisal of qualifications for the profession
- Current résumé (or career summary)
- The names and contact information of three professional and/or academic references

Applications to Multiple Campuses

Applicants, who are undecided with respect to the location they wish to attend, should submit an application and full set of application materials to their location of first choice. Applicants who are accepted into their location of first choice and who, prior to beginning the program, determine they want to complete the same program at a different location, should notify the initial location of record of that intent. Provided that the same program is available, all previous approvals and credits accepted will remain in force. If an individual requests to change programs, he or she will need to meet all admission requirements of the new program.

Graduation Requirements

- Satisfactory completion of all requirements in the program of study
- A minimum grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) and a grade of "B-" or better in all courses
- Completion of these requirements within five years of matriculation into the program

- A completed Petition to Graduate Form submitted to campus administration

Program Requirements

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program requires the satisfactory completion of 36 credit hours distributed as follows: core course requirements, 24 credit hours; concentration requirements, 12 credit hours.

Core Course Requirements

Students in the MPA program are required to take eight core courses (24 credit hours)
